Preliminary assignment for producing 2026

All assignments must be sent on the 30th of August 2026 by 11:59 pm to paasykokeet@kellariteatteri.fi. Use font size 12, spacing 1.5 and file format PDF on the writing assignments. The use of generative AI is strictly forbidden.

Preliminary assignment for all applicants:

How would you describe yourself as an artist? The questions below can be used to further aid in your answer.

Where does your creativity show? What facet of art is the most personal to you? What is your current situation in life, and how would you recount your evolution as an artist?

Applicants of producing! Please also answer the following questions:

Why are you interested in producing? What are your strengths as a producer? What do you hope to get to do at Kellariteatteri? What is your current situation in life?

NOTE! If you feel that you do not identify as an artist in your role as a producer, you may answer ONLY the questions above.

Remember to write your name in the beginning of the essay, and to name the file in the form lastname_firstname_0. Maximum length of the essay should be one A4 page (a standard sheet of paper).

Evaluation criteria: The applicant's ability to show motivation and distinctive voice in writing, their ability to reflect on themself and their relationship to art and producing. In addition, the applicant's ability to follow the assignment given

Preliminary assignment for applicants of producing:

Plan a journey to the afterlife for ten people. Write the contents of the journey and create a budget plan. Your budget is unlimited, and the only limit is your imagination.

The maximum length of the travel narrative is one A4 page. The maximum length of the budget plan is one A4 page. You may create the budget plan in the form of a table (excel, sheets etc.) if you wish. However, submit only one PDF containing two pages.

Write your name at the beginning of the document and name the file using the format lastname_firstname_producing_1.

Evaluation criteria: The applicant's ability to plan creatively, ability to identify people's needs and understand the overall picture, as well as their ability and understanding of the different aspects of an event, journey, or experience, and their ability to follow the assignment given.